SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE FOR WAIKĪKĪ STUDENTS

Honolulu, Hawai'i – On Thursday, July 11, Representative Adrian K. Tam and community organizations invite the public to participate in two donation drives to collect school supplies for Waikīkī students.

"As we prepare for the upcoming school year, we ask for our community's support in ensuring our keiki have the necessary supplies and resources to help them succeed in the classroom. Every contribution makes a difference, and we appreciate our community's kōkua," said Representative Adrian K. Tam (D-24 Waikīkī).

"Rotary has a commitment to creating access to education and literacy. We are excited to partner with our friends from various Clubs around the state and Representative Tam's office to help our community schools prepare for the upcoming school year," said Randy Soriano, President, Rotary E-Club of Hawai'i.
